Timing for Ready-To-Wear Orders

You should order your dress a minimum of three (3) months in advance of your wedding date.

We do advise that you order your gown as early as you can. You should expect to receive your dress 4-8 weeks after we receive your deposit and signed order form. Allow much more time for custom designs. You should plan on having your dress at least 3 weeks before the wedding to allow for any final alterations that may be necessary.

Ordering Timeline & Pricing For Rush Orders

The minimum ordering time to receive regular pricing is six (6) weeks prior to your wedding date on one of our ready-to-wear designs, and ten (10) weeks on a custom design. Any gown ordered less than the 6 or 10 weeks from the scheduled ceremony is considered a rush order. Rush orders incur an extra 10% charge (of the dress total.) For Example, a gown priced at $800 would be $880 as a rush order.

If you are really in a rush, call us and we may have a sample gown in your size in stock you may purchase at regular price.

Custom Designs

We do make custom gowns. The pricing on custom gowns generally ranges from $800-$2000, but depends on the design. Please call us to discuss custom options and guidelines.

Payment

We require a 50% deposit upon the order of your gown and the other 50% when your gown is ready to ship. We accept Visa and MasterCard, money orders and personal checks. Please note that if you pay by check we will wait for the check to clear before we consider it a paid deposit. Please do not email credit card numbers, but rather call us or put them on your order form.

Refund Policy

As all of our gowns are cut and sewn to order, all deposits and gowns are non-refundable.

Final Pressing

Please note that we pre-shrink all of our fabrics. Due to the nature of the natural fibers the washing tends to leave some wrinkles. We suggest that you have your gown professionally pressed to remove the final wrinkles.

Shipping

There is a $25.00 shipping charge per order.

Thank you for your order, we look forward to creating the dress of your dreams!
